

LIVESTOCK GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The Arizona Exposition and State Fair Board or their representative reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Fair.
2. Violation of any rule is subject to disqualification of entry, disqualification of exhibitor, forfeiture of premium money, forfeiture of sale proceeds, reporting of actions to other fairs or livestock shows and ineligibility to participate in future Arizona State Fairs.
3. Any exhibitor suspected of fraudulent or deceptive practices toward Fairground officials or other Fair participants may be barred from exhibiting and/or showing of animals at the Arizona State Fair. Anyone barred from exhibiting shall be at the sole discretion of the Executive Director and any decision made by the Executive Director shall be final.
4. The Board or its representative reserves the right to amend or add to these rules, as it deems necessary.
5. Any person who violates any of the rules may forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the Board or its representative may order.
6. The Fair Board does not guarantee the payment of Special Premiums and awards offered in this list by merchants or breeders' associations. These prizes are usually secured by the Fair Board with a promissory statement in good faith and must be contested under these conditions.
7. Large livestock shall remain in the care, custody and control of the entrant. The entrant shall indemnify and hold harmless the State of Arizona, Arizona State Fair and the Arizona State Fair Board it's employees, officers, agents or representatives for any injury, property damage and any real, incidental, or consequential damages resulting from the large livestock or caused by the large livestock. Entrant agrees to defend any claim brought against the Fair as a result of the large livestock. The Arizona Exposition and State Fair Board will not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by or arising out of strikes, riots, lockouts, terrorism or acts of God.
4. To be awarded premiums, livestock must be brought into the show ring and judged. No premiums will be paid for judging of livestock entries (animals) in their pens or stalls.
5. Premium checks will be made payable to either the owner or the exhibitor as stated on the entry form. Total premiums and Auction Add-Ons of $600 or more to any individual will be paid only after the Entry Department has received a completed IRS Form W-9.
6. Voucher checks for premiums will be mailed as soon after the Fair as possible. If check is not received within 60 days, the Director of Entries should be notified.
7. February 1 following the fair is the deadline for reporting any error in premium check or checks not having been received by the exhibitor. After that date, no changes will be made nor checks issued.
8. Premium check not cashed within 6 months of issuance will not be reissued.
9. The Board will deduct any fees remaining unpaid at the conclusion of the Fair from premiums payments and will additionally deduct a $25.00 administrative fee.
10. Premium checks will not be paid until all bills with the Arizona State Fair and the Arizona State Feed & Bedding Concession are paid.
