

Arizona Department of Revenue License Compliance Program

Arizona transaction privilege tax (TPT); commonly referred to as sales tax, is a tax imposed upon vendors for the privilege of doing business in the state. In order to be in compliance, a business that is selling a product or engaging in a service that is subject to TPT, will require a TPT license from the Arizona Department of Revenue (ADOR).

Hands-On

Direct support from License and Registration when registering for a transaction privilege and use tax (TPT) license.

Step-By-Step

Guidance with the process of filing and paying TPT liabilities. From identifying appropriate business codes to determining applicable deductions, and everything in between.

Provision

We provide easy to follow standard templates for event promoters to collect and maintain vendor information.

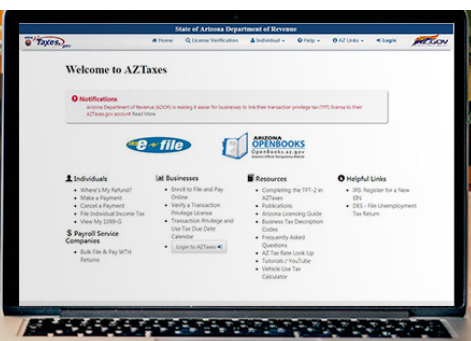

Municipalities

Collaboration with the cities and towns to ensure compliance and consistent education across all TPT tax types

We are here to help

Joint Tax Application (JT-1)
Account linking
Adding location and region codes
Filing returns

Making payments
AZTaxes.gov E-PIN reset
Online renewals

License Compliance Program

List of taxable activities but not limited to:

Advertisement	Motor Vehicle Sales
Aircraft/Boat Sales	Online Lodging Marketplace
Amusement	Publishing
Commercial Lease	Restaurant/Bar
Communications	Retail
Contracting	Special Events/Craft Shows
Food for Home Consumption	Transport
Hotel/Motel	Utilities
Job Printing	Use Tax

Businesses are required to file all their TPT activity with ADOR through a centralized reporting and payment system, which makes it easier to file one return per TPT license.

Need additional support? Attend a Business Tax Basics Workshop in person or online:

azdor.gov/taxpayer-education/upcoming-events

Take advantage of our transaction privilege tax step-by-step user tutorials:

azdor.gov/taxpayer-education/tpt-tutorials

CONTACT US

(602) 716-6152

LicenseCompliance@azdor.gov

Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

AZ Taxes.gov
APPLY | FILE | PAY

Register your business to file and pay taxes online at AZTaxes.gov. You are able to apply for a new license, make changes to an existing license, file and pay your TPT faster.